Graceway Weekly - An electronic newsletter for members and friends of Graceway Fellowship, Green Bay, Wisconsin

TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

The Prime Timers are scheduled to meet this morning for their regular monthly luncheon. If you're 55 or older you're invited to join them at Denny's on Oneida Street. We'll start gathering at 11:30AM.

Following the luncheon, at 3PM, the Golden Gospel Group will have a service for the residents at Marla Vista Assisted Living (1006 N. Military Ave.).

Tonight adult programs are being cancelled so that we can meet in the Quarterly Business Meeting. You'll hear reports from the MATS, and ministry teams; a financial update will be given, and we'll consider recommendations from the church council and Deacons. All members of Graceway Fellowship are encouraged to attend.

THIS SUNDAY AT GRACEWAY

God's grace will continue to be the focus during the Sunday morning worship service. Pastor Rick is preparing the message Grace Allows Us To Serve, from Hebrews 12:28-29. Sunday Evening will be another message from the series, Becoming Like Jesus, the message will be, Tension of Spirit VS Material.

Graceway Kids will hear as Paul continues to encourage his young student to do his very best for God in 2 Timothy.

YOUR MISSIONARIES

MARK LANGLEY serves as the state director of evangelism for the Montana Southern Baptist Convention. His task is to strengthen Montana churches to lead their communities to Christ. Mark provides tools and resources for churches and pastors to equip their people for ministry, especially evangelism. This large state has only 134 SBC churches and the state convention staff is small. Your support through the Cooperative Program will ensure that Montana churches will have the tools and resources they need to reach their communities for Christ. Pray that lostness and spiritual darkness will be pushed back in the great state of Montana.

Because JUSTIN and SUE KAISE* often have guests in their home, much of their ministry is hospitality. In one year they had 270 nights of overnight guests. They also invite many Muslim friends and business relationships over for dinner. The Kaisers strive to do ministry together as a family. They have taken trips throughout the Middle East as a family, and the trips were more successful because their children were with them. You support their family and provide for their home through the Cooperative Program. The Kaise family serves as representatives for Christ in a part of the world that is desperate to know Him.

BRIDAL SHOWER

The ladies of the church and friends will be gathering this Saturday for a Bridal Shower for Rebekah Schulze. Activities will begin at 2PM. Rebekah and her fiancé, Brandon Leauliou, are registered at Bed Bath & Beyond; Cabelas; and Shopko.

RECHARGE

Several members of the youth and children's ministry team of Graceway Fellowship will be attending the all-day RECHARGE conference this Saturday. RECHARGE is a one-day multi-denominational children's and youth ministry conference that aims to inspire and equip church staff and volunteers in their efforts to share their faith with the next generation. This is the first time RECHARGE has been offered in Green Bay. Community Church is hosting the event.

THE LAW OF THE OLD WEST

A Mexican bandit made a specialty of crossing the Rio Grande from time to time and robbing banks in Texas. Finally, a reward was offered for his capture, and an enterprising Texas Ranger decided to track him down.

After a lengthy search, he traced the bandit to his favorite cantina, snuck up behind him, put his trusty six-shooter to the bandit's head, and said, "You're under arrest. Tell me where you hid the loot or I'll shoot you." But the bandit didn't speak English, and the Ranger didn't speak Spanish.

The Ranger asked a local to translate his message. The terrified bandit blurted out, in Spanish, that the loot was buried under the oak tree in back of the cantina. "What did he say?" asked the Ranger anxiously. The local answered, He say, "He no afraid to die!"
