THIS SUNDAY AT GRACEWAY

As we near the beginning of the Spring Bible Celebration this Sunday morning we'll have the final message in the Grace Allowances series. Pastor Rick gives us Grace Allows Us To Reach Others from Ephesians 3:8. Sunday evening we look at some of the names of Jesus from the Scriptures, and we'll be challenged to relate to them in the message Living Up To The Name.

Graceway Kids will learn about another one of the great Bible heros. Pastor Mike will help them get a better idea of the life and trials of Job.

The countdown has begun....there are just 11 days until we open the Spring Bible Celebration, with Cory Bivins. This year's theme is Gospel of God's Grace and during each service you will learn of a different aspect of God's grace.

A number of sign-up sheets are on the information table. We're seeking volunteers to provide meals for our guest speaker. You can either invite him into your home for a good home-cooked meal, or take him to one of the fine eating establishments in Green Bay. We also need volunteers for each of the special services. We're looking for greeters, ushers, and children care workers. During each service the children's ministry team will offer special programming for kids 6th grade and below.

To help give as many people as possible the opportunity join us for the celebration we have colorful brochures and invitation cards available for you to share with family, friends, neighbors and co-workers. Ample supplies will be available this Sunday. Look for them on the information table.

PRIME TIMERS LOSS

We have lost one of our regular members of the extended Prime Timers family. Earlier this week Jerri Lenarduzzi's brother, Bobby Dearhammer, passed away. The family will hold services at Blaney Funeral home on Monday, March 7, 6PM. Visitation will be from 3-6PM. Keep Jerri and the Kornowski family in your prayers.

HERE I AM, SEND ME

The North American Mission Board has selected this verse from Isaiah 6:8 as the theme for this year's Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Each year we come to you asking for your financial gifts to support our missionaries in the North American continent. This offering helps support a number of missionaries serving in the Minnesota-Wisconsin Baptist Convention. Some of them are regularly mentioned in the Going and Growing section of the Graceway Weekly. The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering has three phases: praying; giving; going. Which will you do? Our goal for this year is $1,500.

SUMMER PLANS

Many have started looking at travel guides and trying to figure out where they are going to spend their summer vacation. In the near future you are going to hear about two opportunities that could be great investments of your time this summer. Vacation Bible School in July, and the Builders For Christ project in Milwaukee in August. We're hosting a VBS training on April 10, and this weekend representatives from the Bay Lakes Building team will attend the planning meeting for the Milwaukee building project. Watch for details on how you can get involved in either or both of these opportunities.

SOUNDS FAMILIAR

Three wives were bemoaning their husbands' attitudes towards leftovers:

"It gets rough," one said. "My husband is a TV producer and he calls them reruns."

"You think you have it bad," was the reply. "Mine is a quality control engineer and he calls them rejects!"

"That's nothing compared to me," said the third lady. "My husband is a mortician. He calls them remains!"
